Professional Services Agreement No.

This Professional Service Agreement (the “Agreement”) is made by and between Intergraph Security, Government & Infrastructure, a division of Intergraph Corporation (“Intergraph”), and __________________ (“Customer”) as of the Customer’s signature date below (the “Contract Date”). For purposes of this Agreement, Intergraph will provide services, as described in this Proposal, to Customer subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

For good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, Intergraph and Customer (each a “Party” and together, the “Parties”) agree as follows:

1.0 Definitions

1.1 Services Schedule

The rates, discounts and certain other provisions applicable to the Intergraph services are set forth in the above referenced Proposal (which is hereby incorporated by reference) and shall be effective on the Contract Date.

1.2 Term

The “Term” of this Agreement will begin on the Contract Date and shall end upon completion of the services described in the Proposal.

2.0 Termination and Termination Liability

2.1 Discontinuation of Business

Either Party may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the other Party if such other Party dissolves, discontinues or terminates its business operations to which this Agreement pertains or such other Party makes any assignment for the benefit of creditors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where Intergraph dissolves, discontinues or terminates its business operations or makes any assignment for the benefit of creditors, Intergraph will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide comparable services to Customer on comparable terms and conditions for a period of up to one hundred twenty (120) days in order to assist Customer in transitioning said services to a new service provider.

2.2 Termination for Cause

Either Party may terminate this Agreement for Cause. “Cause” shall mean a failure of either Party to perform a material obligation under this Agreement which failure is not remedied by such Party within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice. “Cause” shall also mean Customer’s failure to pay amounts past due in accordance with the section of the Proposal titled Pricing or Fee for Services.

2.3 Suspension/Termination for Regulatory Reasons

Intergraph may suspend (or in the case of any of the circumstances set forth below, which Intergraph believes may continue for the foreseeable future, terminate) this Agreement (or the applicable portion thereof) immediately upon notice to Customer if:

a) Intergraph is unable to obtain or maintain any U.S. or foreign governmental license, waiver, consent, registration or approval needed to provide any service hereunder;

b) The continued provision of a service would contravene any local, state, national or international regulation or law.

Prior to suspension or termination hereunder, Intergraph will provide Customer with advance written notice where possible (in Intergraph’s reasonable discretion), of Intergraph’s inability to continue providing Service(s) hereunder.

Intergraph may suspend or terminate any service if said suspension or termination is necessary to prevent or protect against fraud or otherwise protect Intergraph’s personnel, agents, facilities, or services. In the event Intergraph is unable to continue to provide a third-party subcontractor’s, vendor’s or component of equipment, or service for any reason, Intergraph will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide to Customer alternative comparable equipment or service by or through another vendor (or through itself where Intergraph is capable of providing those discontinued services) under comparable terms and conditions.

2.4 Mutual Consent

This Agreement may also be terminated at any time by mutual written agreement of the Parties.

2.5 Termination Liability

If: (1) Customer terminates this Agreement during the Services Term, for reasons other than: for Cause; or (2) Intergraph terminates this Agreement for Cause, Customer agrees to pay:

7/19/2006
(a) All accrued but unpaid charges incurred through the date of such termination;

(b) For network management services: the difference between 85% of the total recurring monthly charges and the total recurring monthly charges actually paid to Intergraph.

(c) For non-network services: An amount (which Customer hereby agrees is reasonable) equal to the Charges that would otherwise have been due Intergraph during the remaining portion of the Services Term as of the date of such termination, not to exceed three (3) months of Charges;

(d) Payment in full for any product ordered on Customer’s behalf.

Intergraph will indemnify Customer for damages finally awarded against Customer or agreed to by Intergraph in settlement of such Claim, and for Customer’s reasonable costs incurred as a result of such Claim. Intergraph shall have the exclusive right to defend, counter sue, or settle any such Claim and to collect all damages, costs, fees, and other charges awarded from any such Claim. The customized software shall remain the property of Intergraph and be subject to Intergraph’s standard Software

   a) Any confidential, proprietary and/or competition sensitive information exchanged by the parties and entitled to protection hereunder shall be identified by the furnishing party as confidential, proprietary and/or competition sensitive by (i) appropriate stamp or marking on the documents exchanged, or (ii) written notice of any disclosures made under assertion of confidentiality, sent to the receiving party no later than two (2) weeks after disclosure, with listings of all proprietary material and appropriately stamped or marked summaries of such other disclosures.

   b) Verbal communications that are considered confidential, proprietary and/or competition sensitive may also be conducted as part of the normal discussion activities. Prior to these verbal communications, an announcement will be made that the conversation to follow is to be considered confidential, proprietary and/or competition sensitive, and at the conclusion of that part of the conversation that is considered confidential, proprietary and/or competition sensitive, an ending comment will be made so as to bracket the information which is considered to be confidential. Both parties agree to hold such verbal information in confidence in accordance with this Agreement.

   c) The receiving party will hold such confidential, proprietary and/or competition sensitive information in confidence for a period of three (3) years from the date of receipt under this Agreement, and during such period will use such information only for evaluation purposes and will make such information available only to its employees having a "need to know" in order to carry out their functions in connection with the purpose of this Agreement.

   d) Should the receiving party be faced with legal action regarding disclosure of information under this Agreement, the receiving party shall forthwith notify the furnishing party, and, upon the request and at the expense of the latter, shall cooperate with the furnishing party in contesting such a disclosure. Except in connection with failure to discharge responsibilities set forth in the preceding sentence, neither party shall be liable in damages for any disclosures pursuant to judicial actions or for inadvertent disclosure where the proper degree of care has been exercised; provided, that upon discovery of such inadvertent disclosure, it shall have endeavored to prevent any further inadvertent disclosure and to correct the effects of any such inadvertent disclosure.

11.1 Currency

Unless otherwise specified, all amounts due for Intergraph services will be billed in U.S. Dollars.

11.2 Payment Terms

Customer shall pay Intergraph for services within thirty (30) calendar days after the date of Intergraph's invoice.

11.3 Customer Responsibility

Customer agrees to be financially responsible for all Customer's authorized subsidiary and Distributor usage hereunder.

11.4 Past Due Amounts

Amounts not paid within thirty (30) days after the date of the invoice will be considered past due, provided, however, that Customer shall be authorized to withhold from its payment those amounts which it believes, in good faith, have been erroneously charged to its account. In order to exercise this provision, Customer must provide Intergraph with immediate written notice of the reasons (and documentation) supporting its withholding of any such sums, and further, it must pay all undisputed amounts billed to its account. After receiving written notice from Customer of the alleged billing discrepancy, Intergraph shall be given thirty (30) days to investigate and engage in informal dispute resolution procedures aimed at resolving the alleged billing dispute.

If, after this time period, Intergraph and Customer continue to dispute the existence and/or amount of Customer’s billing claims, then Intergraph or Customer may seek to arbitrate the dispute pursuant to this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this provision is not intended to limit Intergraph’s interim right to seek any other relief authorized by this Agreement, including but not limited to discontinuation of the Intergraph services and/or termination of the Agreement for non-payment in the event Intergraph determines that such billing claims are not bona fide.

Intergraph may terminate the affected services and/or this Agreement for Cause, as defined in section 2.2 of this Agreement in the event Customer fails to comply with its payment obligations hereunder. Independent of such payment obligations, Customer will make a separate claim in writing, with adequate support, for any credit to which Customer believes itself entitled hereunder, and Intergraph and Customer will promptly address such claim.

If Customer does not give Intergraph written notice of a dispute with respect to any charges within six (6) months of the date an invoice was rendered, such invoice shall be deemed to be correct and binding. Failure of Intergraph to invoice Customer in a timely manner for any amounts due hereunder shall not be deemed a waiver by Intergraph of its rights to payment.

12.0 Client Obligations

Unless otherwise specified, Customer shall be under the following obligations:

12.1 Security

Customer shall, at its own expense, take all reasonable physical and information systems security measures necessary to protect all equipment, software, data and systems located on Customer’s premises or otherwise in Customer’s control and used in connection with the Intergraph services, whether owned by Customer, Intergraph, or Intergraph’s subcontractors. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Intergraph is not liable, either in contract or in tort, for any loss resulting from any unauthorized access to, or alteration, theft, destruction, corruption, or use of, facilities used in connection with the Intergraph services.

(c) Foreign corrupt practices acts. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Intergraph does not represent that any necessary import, export or customs licenses or approvals will be granted with respect to services provided hereunder.

The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the United States Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. 1 et seq. ("USAA") notwithstanding any choice of law provision in this Agreement. Each Party shall bear the fees and costs it incurs in preparing and presenting its own case. The Parties agree that Huntsville, AL shall be the location for the arbitration hearing. 15.4 No Waiver

Neither Party’s failure, at any time, to enforce any right or remedy available to it under this Agreement shall be construed to be a waiver of such Party’s right to enforce each and every provision of this Agreement in the future.
